

Arthur F. Hazen, Jr. Attends Cambridge Premier Club 2018

Distinction earns recognition at Cambridge Premier Club 2018 in Marco Island

February 21, 2018 – Arthur F. Hazen, Jr. of Medallion Wealth Management was recognized by his broker-dealer, Cambridge Investment Research, Inc. (Cambridge) to participate in Cambridge's Premier Club conference in Marco Island, Florida, February 12-15, 2018. Cambridge independent financial advisors are invited to participate based on their dedication to service excellence while staying true to Cambridge's core values of integrity, commitment, flexibility, and kindness.

"We were honored to have Arthur F. Hazen, Jr. join us at Premier Club 2018," said President and Chief Executive Officer Amy Webber. "At Cambridge, we are focused on the financial professional with an independent mindset and dedication to best serving the needs of their investing clients. We take pride in continuing to support Cambridge's independent financial advisors by offering opportunities that expose them to different perspectives that lend to the development of new skills."

The conference focused on renewing a commitment to excellence in serving clients and an unwavering dedication to independence, bringing together similar advisors in Marco Island for celebration, educational events, and networking opportunities. In addition to celebrating this achievement with industry speakers and information sessions, Premier Club advisors engaged in various networking sessions alongside Cambridge's senior executives.

In Arthur F. Hazen, Jr.'s words ...

"I want to thank my clients for choosing me as their financial professional. I sincerely appreciate and value their trust in me and my team. I take their confidence seriously, that I will provide them with objective recommendations and advice based on their needs and goals, and I look forward to expanding my knowledge at the event."

"To be named to Cambridge's Premier Club is an honor to be shared with my clients and my team. It is also a reflection of our shared values and dedication with Cambridge to serving clients, plus I enjoy the opportunities to share experiences with my peers."
